8 Ways to Raise Children Who Care About Others

- Make helping others a family affair
- Teach children to find the everyday abundance around them and help them to think of people with whom they can share
- Help children be creators and not destroyers
  - teach respect for environment, their own and other people's possessions
- Help children feel like a needed and respected part of your family
  - listen, assign age-appropriate responsibilities
- Encourage children and show them to perform small acts of kindness
- Help children have a positive outlook on life
- Encourage children to find ways to show they care
  - teach them to write thank you notes, be diligent in caring for pets
- Teach children to be sincerely grateful
